Public Notice

Used Oil Collection Facility

Council Stock Depot, Cottrell Street Dowerin

Due to the loss of market for used oil, collection agents are no longer able to remove used oil at no cost and have commenced charging a fee for this service.

Council, in wishing to continue to provide the service, has resolved to retain the current facility however on-charge this fee to residents using an honour system.

Effective immediately residents are requested to contact Council administration staff to notify and arrange payment prior to utilising the facility. The current charge is 16.5 cents per litre.

A review of this system will be undertaken in three months time and residents' cooperation in ensuring the success and continuation of the service is requested.
