Introduction

The application of delegated authority is intended to improve the efficiency, effectiveness and timeliness of decision-making and is consistent with the Shire's Strategic Community Plan and commitment to a strong customer service focus.

The Council (and the Chief Executive Officer, in the case of most sub delegations) delegate matters where the relevant employees (and sometimes other persons) have the appropriate skills and expertise to implement the delegation or sub delegation within the Shire's decision-making frameworks. At the same time the exercise of all delegated and sub delegated authority is subject to complying with relevant policies of the Shire, which are referenced within each Instrument.

An important safeguard is also the principle that nothing prevents the delegating body or person from taking back a delegation or sub delegation or making the relevant decision on a particular issue.

Definitions

The terms used throughout this register are defined below:

Delegate

the person (named by position title or office) or entity 'appointed' by the delegator, to act in place of the delegator for the purpose of exercising an express power or duty.

Delegation

the process, prescribed in legislation, for assigning authority to exercise an express power or duty from the delegate to another person (named by position title or office) or an entity (the Delegate).

Delegator

the person (named by position title or office) or entity in which the written law vests an Express Power or Duty who delegates that Express Power or Duty.

Express Power or Duty

a power or duty written (expressly) in legislation.

Express Power to Delegate

a power (procedure) written (expressly) in legislation that enables the devolution of an Express Power or Duty from a Delegator to a Delegate.

Head of Power

the legislation, which contains an express power to delegate and/or an express power or duty.

Instrument of Delegation

the written form of a delegation. Legislation requires delegation be provided in writing. The instrument of delegation communicates the delegation from the Delegator to the Delegate.

Sub-delegate

the person (named by position or title or office) or entity to which a Delegate has sub-delegated a power or duty, which has been delegated to that Delegate by the Delegator.

Local Government Act 1995

The majority of delegations and sub delegations described in this Register originate under the Local Government Act 1995, which permits a local government (by absolute majority decision under Section 5.42(1)) to delegate to the Chief Executive Officer the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties under the Act except those listed in Section 5.43.

The delegation powers under the Local Government Act 1995 relate to the Act itself, Regulations made under the Act and Local Laws made under the Act.

The Local Government Act 1995 allows the Chief Executive Officer to delegate any of the powers delegated to the Office of Chief Executive Officer to another employee (Section 5.44(1)), in writing (Section 5.44(2)) and may include conditions (Section 5.44(4)).

Review of Delegations

The Local Government Act 1995 requires that a review of the Delegations Register occurs at least once every financial year. Delegations, other Acts have different requirements. Where there is no statutory requirement for review, the provisions of the Local Government Act 1995 shall be applied to ensure uniformity. The review will include the Chief Executive Officer reviewing all sub-delegations and authorisations.

Standard Conditions of Delegations

In accordance with Section 5.71 of the Local Government Act 1995 and the Shire of Dowerin's Code of Conduct, if an employee has been delegated a power or duty relating to a matter in which the employee has an interest, that employee must not exercise the power or discharge the duty and must, in the case of the CEO, disclose to the Shire President the nature of the interest, and in the case of any other employee, must disclose to the CEO the nature of the interest. The Local Government Act 1995 contains severe penalties for failure to comply.

In accordance with Sections 5.75 and 5.76 of the Local Government Act 1995, the delegation of a power or duty to an employee triggers the requirement to make disclosures in primary and annual returns. The Local Government Act 1995 contains severe penalties for failure to comply. It is the responsibility of each individual employee to ensure compliance.

Any delegation exercised shall comply with any laws and regulations in force, and the requirements of any Shire of Dowerin Local Laws, Council Policies and resolutions of Council.

In accordance with Section 5.46(3) of the Local Government Act 1995, a person to whom a power or duty is delegated under this Act is to keep records in accordance with regulations in relation to the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty. Regulation 19 of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 requires the person to whom the power or duty has been delegated to keep a written record of:

1. how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
2. when the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
3. the person or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

Record of Actions and Decisions

If a person is exercising a power or duty that has been delegated (including sub delegated), the Local Government Act 1995 requires that records be kept whenever the delegated authority is utilised (Section 5.46 (3)). Regulation 19 of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 prescribes the information required to be recorded:

1. how the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
2. when the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
3. the persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

Officers responsible for a delegated function, power or duty are to ensure that data is captured and records managed in accordance with all legislation, as well as preparing reports to Council where required.

Primary and Annual Returns

An employee to whom a duty or power is delegated under the Local Government Act 1995 is considered a 'designated employee' under Section 5.74(1) of the Act and is required to complete a primary and annual return each year.

Matters which cannot be Delegated

The following are decisions that cannot be delegated by Council to the Chief Executive Officer as per Section 5.43 of the Act:

1. Any power or duty that requires a decision of an absolute majority
2. Accepting a tender which exceeds an amount determined by the local government;
3. Appointing an auditor;
4. Acquiring or disposing of any property valued at an amount determined by the local government;
5. Any of the local government's powers under Sections 5.98, 5.98A, 5.99A, 5.99 and 5.100 of the Act;
6. Borrowing money on behalf of the local government;
7. Hearing or determining an objection of a kind referred to in Section 9.5;
8. The power under Section 9.49(4) to authorize a person to sign documents on behalf of the local government;
9. Any power or duty that requires the approval of the Minister or Governor; or
10. Such other duties or powers that may be prescribed by the Act.

Furthermore, the following regulations prescribe powers and duties which cannot be delegated to the CEO:

1. Regulation 18G of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation to a CEO of the powers and duties under Sections 7.12(a), 7.12A(3)(a) and 7.12A(4) of the Local Government Act 1995 (relating to meetings with auditors);
2. Regulations 18C and 18D (relating to the selection and appointment of CEO's and reviews of their performance); and
3. Regulation 6 of the Local Government (Financial Management) Regulations 1996 prohibits the delegation of the duty to conduct an internal audit to an employee (including a CEO) who has been delegated the duty of maintaining the local government's day to day accounts or financial management operations.

Delegation by the Chief Executive Officer to an Employee

Section 5.44(1) of the Local Government Act 1995 allows for the Chief Executive Officer to delegate any of the powers to another employee other than the power of delegation. This must be done in writing as per Section 5.44(2). The Act also allows for the Chief Executive Officer to place conditions on any delegations if desired under Section 5.44(4).

A register of delegations relevant to the Chief Executive Officer and other employees is to be kept and reviewed at least once every financial year as per Section 5.46(1) and (2) of the Act. If a person is exercising a power or duty that they have been delegated, the Act requires that records be kept whenever the delegated authority is exercised as per Section 5.46(3) of the Act.

The record is to contain the following information:

1. How the person exercised the power or discharged the duty;
2. When the person exercised the power or discharged the duty; and
3. The persons or classes of persons, other than council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty under Regulation 19 of Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996.

Officers responsible for a work process are to ensure that data is captured and records managed in accordance with all legislation, as well as preparing reports to Council where required under a specific delegation.

A person to whom a power is delegated under the Act is considered to be a “designated employee” under Section 5.74(1) of the Act and is required to complete a primary and annual return each year.

There is no power for a person other than the CEO to delegate a power as stated in Section 5.44(1) of the Act.

Officers must refer to relevant legislation prior to making any decisions under delegated authority.

Acting through another person

The Local Government Act 1995 recognises that employees do not always need delegations (or sub delegations) to carry out their tasks and functions on behalf of the Shire. Section 5.45(2) of the Act states:

“Nothing in this Division (Division 4 - Local Government Employees) is to be read as preventing -

- (a) a local government from performing any of its functions by acting through a person other than the Chief Executive Officer; or
- (b) a Chief Executive Officer from performing any of his or her functions by acting through another person.”

The key difference between a delegation and “acting through” is that a delegate exercises the delegated decision making function in his or her own right. Thus, an employee may pay an account or issue an approval if directed to do so by another employee who has the authority to make such a decision and chooses to “act through” another employee.

The principal issue is that where a person has no discretion in carrying out a function, then that function may be undertaken through the “acting through” concept. Alternatively, where the decision allows for discretion on the part of the decision maker, then that function needs to be delegated for another person to have that authority.

Using delegation to make decisions

Before using a delegated authority, a delegate must familiarise themselves with the legislative framework that informs the decisions they will make under the Delegation.

Care should be taken to understand the legislative process, conditions and limitations relevant to the statutory power or duty. The delegate must also consider and apply policy, procedures or standards that are relevant to the decisions they are empowered to make and also ensure that they comprehensively understand the legal framework that informs their decision making.

Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest arises where a personal interest is in conflict with the public interest. Delegates must disclose any conflict of interest, which may require them to be removed from the decision-making process. A Delegate may also refer the decision-making back to the Delegator where they consider there is a risk or sensitivity which makes it more appropriate for the Delegator to make that decision.

The Shire's Code of Conduct requires that employees immediately disclose interests that could be in conflict, or could be perceived to be in conflict, with the performance of their public duties.
