Purpose of Report

Summary

The planning development application proposes to site a modular dwelling house on Rural zoned land together with a large water tank and proposed stand-alone power system/s. This dwelling house will constitute a second dwelling as the original dwelling on the farm built in the 1930s will be retained. A Condition is applied, and four Advice Notes are provided to assist the applicant and owners.

Background

The Shire of Dowerin received a development application on the 10 April 2026 for a second dwelling house inclusive of an 80,000 litre water tank on Rural zoned land located at Lot 24861 Morrell North Road, Dowerin (the DA) as presented in Attachment A, and recorded as DA2026-05. An existing dwelling constructed around the 1930s is to be retained for continuing use by the parents to support family and provide intergenerational living arrangements assisting with the seasonal farming activities.

Comment

The DA presents a new single story 3 bedroom dwelling house of 210m2 inclusive of alfresco area, verandah and the 80,000 litre water tank. The dwelling house proposed is set back a minimum of 450 metres from the road and is of a design and type ubiquitous to the wheatbelt region. The dwelling house architecture is typical for a modern modular dwelling together with ambient colour schemes and wall and roof treatments. The purpose of this dwelling house is to permanently accommodate family members to live and work the seasonal farming activities.

On review, the Shire of Dowerin Local Planning Scheme No. 2 (the Scheme) permits the 'use' of a single dwelling on Rural zoned land although is explicitly silent on the 'use' and 'works' of a second, or even a third dwelling in such a zone. Anecdotally, more contemporary local planning schemes do specifically address such developments to facilitate approvals. Notwithstanding this, a thorough investigation of the Scheme and suitable consultation has provided for sufficient scope to be able to consider this proposal as a 'use not listed'.

This DA is assessed against the Scheme 'Table 1 – Zoning Table' which lists 'uses' permitted (P), or not (X), and it is practicably determined the DA is considered a 'use not listed'. Firstly, the proposal is not a 'single dwelling' given a dwelling house already exists on the lot dating back to the 1930s. Secondly, the proposal is not a 'residential building' for the defined purpose of temporary habitation of two or more persons, or 7 or more persons who do not comprise a single family. Thirdly, the proposal is not a lodging house, nor an aged or dependant persons dwelling. Lastly, the proposal is not a 'grouped dwelling' noting the DA is not a single development outcome given the original dwelling house already exists and does not involve considerations of shared planning such as although not limited to access, setbacks, open space, and parking. Also, the DA is not physically proximate to the existing dwelling house given the separation distance of 1,450 meters therefore does not form a recognisable residential group (e.g. duplexes, villas, townhouses...). Consequently, the existing dwelling relationship with the DA whilst located on the same cadastral lot clearly has a lack of functional integration in this rural land use context to not constitute a 'grouped dwelling' development as contemplated by the Residential Design Codes Vol. 1 (R Code) when applied to the Rural zone through Table 1. Furthermore, support for the DA is provided for in the Scheme through clause 4.10 use of the broad term 'residential development' that means "... development of permanent accommodation for people, and may include all dwellings, the residential component of mixed-use development, and residential buildings proposing permanent accommodation". Therefore, this term provides additional supporting substance for the DA given the many options available for residential developments when considered on the terms of substance rather than on simple form.

The DA particulars. The DA proposed is situated within a Bush Fire Zone for which a Bushfire Attack Level (BAL) Certificate dated 3 December 2025 is issued with the determined Bush Fire Attack Level of BAL-19. Whilst this BAL is below the statutory planning considerations for a local government, a note is made in the report (Page 7) recommending a 20 meter low-fuel / asset protection zone around the dwelling during the fire hazard reduction notice periods; this is fully supported and encouraged and will be an advice note.

Sewerage, Water and Power supply. The dwelling house will require an approval to construct an apparatus for the treatment of sewerage (Septic System), and an approval to use. Whilst the Attachment A site plan shows an illustration for a Septic System, the design will be wholly dependent on the Environmental Health Officer (EHO) undertaking a soil test to determine site-soil conditions and then formally provide the details of the appropriate type and size of the septic system; this will be an advice note. Water supply is available on Lot 24861 based on telephone discussions with the EHO that revealed the existing farm supply will be accessed for the new dwelling house; this will be an advice note given a dwelling water supply is a Shire of Dowerin Health Local laws 1997 (as amended) requirement. An 80,000 litre water tank is proposed for water storage either captured and/or mains supplied. Power supply based on telephone discussions with the EHO for the new dwelling house is not provided for through a reticulated electricity supply. Therefore, an 'off-grid' also known as a 'stand-alone power' system is instead proposed. Whilst such stand-alone power systems are generally supported through State Planning Policy 2.5 Rural Planning (2016), a stand-alone power supply system must be able to demonstrate that the energy generated through the renewable energy source/s is sufficient for the intended dwelling house requirements. Consequently, a condition will be provided to demonstrate the proposed stand-alone power system/s is sufficient for the proposed dwelling house use.

A building permit will be required for the proposed dwelling house although the 80,000 litre water tank being a class 10A building does not due to being outside the gazetted town site boundaries of the district of Dowerin; an advice note will be provided.

The DA as presented has practicable merit for Council to consider supporting the resolution for approval with the listed Conditions and Advice Notes.

That Council, by Simple Majority, approves Development Approval application DA2026-05 received on the 10 April 2026 for a new single story 3 bedroom dwelling house of 210m<sup>2</sup> inclusive of alfresco area, verandah, and an 80,000 litre water tank on the land located at lot 24861 Morrell North Road, Dowerin; and subject to following Condition, and information Advice Notes:

CONDITIONS

1. To demonstrate to the Shire of Dowerin that the proposed stand-alone power system/s is sufficient for the proposed dwelling house use.

ADVICE NOTES

Note 1: That the Bushfire Attack Level Assessment Report dated 3 December 2025 provides a recommendation for a 20 meter low-fuel / asset protection zone around the dwelling to be implemented and maintained during the Shire of Dowerin fire hazard reduction notice periods which is supported and encouraged to be considered so as to mitigate fire risk to life and property.

Note 2. An application to construct an apparatus for the treatment of sewerage (a septic system) is required to be applied for so that the Environmental Health Officer (EHO) can undertake a soil test to determine site-soil conditions to then be able to administrate the details of the appropriate type and size of the septic system through the Approval to Construct documentation. Note, a building permit is not able to be issued and served until the Approval to Construct documentation process is fulfilled.

Note 3. To demonstrate to the Shire of Dowerin that the proposed water supply for the new dwelling house from the existing water service is sufficient and suitable for the proposed dwelling house use. This is a Shire of Dowerin Health Local laws 1997 (as amended) requirement for all dwelling houses. And

Note 4. An application for a building permit to construct onsite the new dwelling house is required to be submitted to the Shire of Dowerin to facilitate a permit to build. Note, the proposed water tank of 80,000 litres is deemed a class 10A building thus does not require a building permit to construct/install in this instance as is outside a gazetted town site boundary within the district of Dowerin.

Summary

Council is requested to consider an application submitted by Mr Aiden Begley seeking approval to keep four (4) dogs at 1 Stacy Street, Dowerin, in accordance with the Shire of Dowerin Dogs Local Law 2012.

The application relates to four working dogs currently housed at the property and used for livestock work. A ranger inspection has been undertaken, with the inspection report concluding that the fencing, housing arrangements, dog condition and overall management of the animals are suitable.

Four neighbouring property responses were received objecting to the application. Following investigation, the Ranger determined that two objections related to historical issues involving previous dogs at the property, while the remaining concerns could be adequately managed through standard approval conditions.

The Ranger has recommended approval of the application subject to standard conditions.

Background

An application was received on 10 April 2026 from Mr Aiden Begley seeking approval to keep four (4) dogs at 1 Stacy Street, Dowerin.

The dogs listed within the application are:

Dog Name	Breed	Age	Sex
Tippy	Kelpie	10	Female
Bandit	Huntaway	5	Male
Nix	Kelpie X	5	Female
Dusty	Kelpie X	1	Female

The applicant advised the dogs are required for working livestock.

A ranger inspection of the property was undertaken on 14 April 2026. The inspection identified:

- suitable fencing and confinement arrangements;
- appropriate housing and bedding;
- adequate water supply;
- dogs in good health condition; and
- no evidence of aggression or unsanitary conditions.

Comment

Section 3.2 of the Shire of Dowerin Dogs Local Law 2012 permits Council to approve an exemption for the keeping of more than two dogs where satisfied that appropriate arrangements are in place and the dogs will not create a nuisance.

The Ranger's inspection report concluded the property is appropriately set up to accommodate the four dogs and recommended approval subject to conditions.

Whilst objections were received from neighbouring properties, the investigation determined that:

- two objections related to previous dogs formerly residing at the property; and
- the remaining concerns could be addressed through enforceable approval conditions relating to barking, wandering, confinement and property maintenance.

Should Council approve the application, the approval would apply only to the four nominated dogs and would cease should any breach of the Dog Act 1976 or approval conditions occur.

Purpose of Report

Executive Decision                       Legislative Requirement

Summary

Council is asked to consider trialling a designated 24-hour RV rest stop at the Dowerin Information Bay precinct for a six-month period.

The proposal would see the existing gravel hardstand area utilised for short-term stays by self-contained recreational vehicles and caravans, providing an opportunity to better activate the precinct while broader planning for future revitalisation of the area continues.

The site is already well positioned for this purpose due to the existing hardstand area, safe vehicle access, nearby public amenities, dump point facilities and proximity to local businesses. The trial would also support tourism, encourage increased visitation to Dowerin and provide a safe rest location for travellers moving through the region.

The proposed trial would operate under controlled conditions, including a maximum 24-hour stay limit and restrictions relating to camping infrastructure, greywater discharge and repeat stays.

Background

The Shire has identified an opportunity to better utilise the existing gravel hardstand area adjacent to the Dowerin Information Bay as a short-term RV rest stop for travellers.

The proposal also presents an opportunity to activate the Information Bay precinct while Council continues broader strategic planning for future townsite and main street revitalisation projects. Rather than leaving the area underutilised pending long-term redevelopment, the proposed trial would provide immediate tourism and economic activation while allowing Council to assess how the precinct functions as a visitor space.

The proposed location is considered suitable for this purpose due to the existing infrastructure and layout already available at the site, including:

- existing gravel hardstand areas;
- safe access and manoeuvrability for caravans and towing vehicles;
- proximity to local businesses and the town centre;
- nearby public toilets and shower facilities;
- existing dump point infrastructure; and
- existing rubbish bins and visitor information infrastructure.

The proposal aligns with broader objectives of encouraging tourism visitation, increasing local economic activity and supporting road safety outcomes by providing a safe short-term rest area for travellers passing through the region.

Comment

It is proposed that Council consider implementing a six-month trial of a formalised RV rest stop at the Dowerin Information Bay precinct under the following indicative operational conditions:

- maximum stay of 24 consecutive hours;
- self-contained RVs and caravans only;
- no tents, swags, annexes or camping structures permitted;
- no campfires;
- no greywater discharge;
- generators restricted during evening hours;
- no repeat stays within a seven-day period; and
- users required to utilise existing dump point and waste facilities.

The proposal is considered a low-cost activation initiative, with the majority of required infrastructure already existing onsite. Minor works may include installation of signage, delineation of parking areas and minor monitoring or maintenance requirements.

The Environmental Health Officer has reviewed the proposal and advised there are no significant environmental health concerns associated with a short-term RV rest stop trial at the location. The site is appropriately zoned as public space and the proposal can proceed as an operational activation of an existing public area.

The trial approach would also allow Council to monitor and assess:

- visitor usage and demand;
- impacts on local businesses and accommodation providers;
- operational and maintenance requirements;
- waste servicing demands;
- compliance and behavioural issues; and
- the overall suitability of the precinct for future tourism-related infrastructure investment.

Should the trial prove successful, a future report may be presented to Council regarding potential long-term implementation or further upgrades to the precinct.
